

Booking a Portrait Session

It's easy.

Send me an email or call/text to discuss. I'll then call you. We'll talk and I'll either then send you a questionnaire to complete or a standard contract to review and sign (hopefully I won't have to refer you to another photographer!). You will return the questionnaire and/or contract along with a $50 non-refundable down payment to book your session.* The downpayment can be made with a check payable to Mary Rice Photography, Venmo, PayPal, or a credit or debit card (you'll call me with your account information). The payment balance is due on the date of the session.

*Should you have to cancel your session due to illness or family emergency, I will apply your down payment to your next scheduled session.
